It has long been in my mind to prepare a scheme of Bible reading, in which as many as were made willing by God might agree, so that the whole Bible might be read... and all might be feeding in the same portion of the green pasture at the same time.

- Robert Murray M'Cheyne

Bible Reading Recommendations:

1. Set a regular time of day for your Bible reading, especially Monday through Friday, and stick to it!
2. Make use of Saturdays and Sundays to catch up on your reading if you fall behind during the week.
3. Recognize that the Old Testament readings on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be comparatively longer, and prepare accordingly.
4. If you fall significantly behind, consider skipping certain portions (such as a whole book) in order to keep in step with the congregation's reading; then go back to them as you have opportunity during the year.
5. Take every opportunity to share your insights and encouragements from the Scriptures with others in the congregation who are "feeding in the same portion of the green pasture."
